To Whom It May Concern:

I, Derek Scarbro, on behalf of the West Virginia Democratic Party, would like to file a formal complaint with the Federal Elections Commission against congressional candidate David McKinley's campaign (HOWV01072). On many of Mr. McKinley's campaign finance reports filed with the FEC, he neglects to provide the required employer and occupational information for his donors who have contributed more than $200. It is important to note that he has neglected to report this required information for the vast majority of his donors.

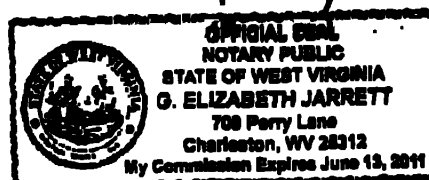

After his reports filed early this cycle neglected to disclose the employer and occupational information, the FEC sent the campaign a request for additional information on April 29, 2010 requiring the campaign to respond by June 3. The campaign's miscellaneous report, filed June 3, claims that it is doing due diligence to comply with FEC guidelines, but after reviewing their July Quarterly reported, filed July 15, in which nearly two-thirds of their donors lack the required employer and occupational information, it is difficult to believe that they are using their best efforts to comply.

The people of West Virginia's 1st Congressional District deserve to have full disclosure on who is financially supporting candidates for Congress. I request that Commission take action to require the McKinley campaign to comply with this simple guideline.

Sincerely,

Derek Scarbro
Executive Director
